About the Company

DTC is a non-profit company, established in the Territory in 1957. It seeks to inspire and reflect the cultural and creative aspirations of the people of the Northern Territory.

Mission Statement

Darwin Theatre Company develops and presents high quality contemporary theatre services within a professional context that enrich the culture and lifestyle of our community and supports creative, relevant, excellent and exciting theatre activity and development throughout the Northern Territory.

We do this by....

- Presenting high quality contemporary theatre from a distinct Northern Territory viewpoint.
- Striving for excellence in script development for professional theatre in the Northern Territory.
- Creatively addressing issues that affect the Northern Territory community through commissioning and performing theatre works.
- Developing innovative partnerships and collaborations with arts practitioners, and professional arts and service organisations within the Northern Territory.
- Extending beyond Darwin to provide access to theatre services for audiences and professional, emerging and community theatre practitioners in regional and remote communities of the Northern Territory.
- Cooperating with companies outside the Northern Territory in order to extend the life of local work, optimise use of resources and promote the profile of regional theatre in Northern Australia.
